Our story began in 1971 when our parents, Susan Sokol and Bill Blosser, first planted vines in Oregon's Dundee Hills. As second generation winegrowers, we are passionately committed to our family's legacy of creating world-class wines which express our distinctive hillside vineyards. Originally, Twelve Row Block was eleven rows of pinot noir and one row of riesling. Replanted from original cuttings and expanded to 36 rows of pinot noir in 2007, the clone, which we grew up thinking was Pommard, is actually Martini clone. Wine from this site is always bold and intense with essences of clove, cigar, and chocolate.
