During World War II, an airbase was established at the foothills of the Rattlesnake Mountains. After the war it was sold to the Miller Family. For four generations, the family has farmed the surrounding area using the old airbase as their farm headquarters. Wine grapes were planted at "Airfield" in 1968, and the family has been perfecting its craft ever since.

WINEMAKER'S NOTES This red blend exhibits a delightful bouquet of red plum, perfume, & violet. This wine was carefully crafted to be fruit-driven in style, well rounded, smooth, & very approachable. It pairs well with a wide variety of foods. Try it with grilled meats, hamburgers, and pizza.
