CHENIN BLANC - 2010

There is evidence that vines were domesticated in about 3000BC in the Near East, Sumer and Egypt. And of course, many of mankind's great leaps forward in terms of civilization and cuisine occurred at the same time as important discoveries in winemaking. Continuing in this tradition, 3000BC brings you a fine, exceptionally civilized wine that is modern, yet honors the ancient art that created it.

This Chenin Blanc has fragrant ripe pear, apple and passion fruit flavors on the nose that carry through to the palate.
