GRGICH HILLS

2005 Fumé Blanc

This gorgeous Sauvignon Blanc is crisp, rich, and utterly seductive, with a tropical bouquet leading into concentrated citrus and melon. Partial aging in older French oak provides structure and hints of spice while preserving the wine's character. The grapes come from our cool American Canyon vineyard, which like all of our five vineyards is farmed according to natural cycles and using no artificial fertilizers, pesticides, or fungicides. These practices produce balanced, healthy vines and pure, concentrated fruit – we know you'll enjoy the results!
