Blue Ostrich

WINERY VINEYARD

One of the cornerstone grapes of central Italy, Sangiovese continues to gain popularity with Texas grape growers for it's potential to flourish in hot summer weather. Soaking up the sun at Bishop Vineyards on the Rolling Plains near Childress, TX, these grapes rendered a wine with notes of dried cherries, vanilla, mulberry and a hint of leather. It's brick red color makes it visually pleasing when served next to a hearty meal of spinach and cheese stuffed ravioli or grilled Texas Quail and zucchini.
