Bandol A.O.C. 2015

Mourvèdre 80% - Grenache 10% - Cinsault 10%

In Southern France, bordering the Mediterranean Sea extend the largest and most ancient vineyards of our country : Roussillon, Languedoc and Provence. This natural amphitheater whilst swept by the cool winds from the North, the Mistral and the Tramontane, also benefits from the protective and temperate influence of "our sea", Mare Nostrum. In our favoured appellations we select the grapes we love, more often than not, from the oldest vineyards. Our two years maturation process are in traditional barrels of a larger format - foudres and demi muids; thus conserving the typical Mediterranean intensity in our wines, while preserving balance and crispness that is our mantra for all the wines we make.

Bandol 2015: intense and sunny, a walk across a Provence path. It is in Bandol where Mourvèdre finds its finest expression; the extraordinary depth of its ripe tanins long echoes with the softness of Grenache and the fascinating fruit of very old Cinsault.
