PAGO CASA DEL BLANCO
DENOMINACIÓN DE ORIGEN PROTEGIDA

"El Ingenioso Hidalgo Don Quixote De La Mancha", Vol II, was published in the year 1615. This wine from the same region is a homage to Don Miguel de Cervantes (author of the book), and to Don Quixote himself, a revolutionary to some, a lunatic to others, but unquestionably a knight at heart to all.

This wine comes from the qualified single-vineyard estate PAGO CASA DEL BLANCO, recognized as such due to our wines' singularity that reflects their "terroir". Our soil and microclimate create a wine with unique characteristics; a Pago wine. This wine has been aged for 12 months in French and American oak barrels. In order to preserve all its potential, it has not undergone any stabilization, which may cause some natural sediment to appear at the bottom of the bottle.
