THE WINES OF CATENA

SELECCIÓN MALBEC • 2011 • MENDOZA

The grapes for Alamos Selección Malbec are hand-selected from vineyards at elevations up to 5,000 feet in Mendoza's Uco Valley. The intense sunlight at this altitude leads to thicker grape skins and richer, more flavorful wines. The crisp, cool nights ensure a longer growing season, allowing the grapes to gain complexity while retaining balance. The result is Alamos Selección, a deep, dark Malbec with layers of dark berry flavors, notes of violet and spice, and a long complex finish.
