BARREL AGED: INSPIRATION
BELGIAN-STYLE DARK SPECIALTY ALE

Our Barrel-Aged Series takes a selection of our beers and ages them in some of the finest barrels available. The possibilities for creativity are endless, and our brewers dream big! Individual wooden barrels impart distinctly different flavors: vanilla, coconut, honey and toast, as well as any contribution from the barrel's previous contents. As a craft brewery, we love the varying nuances imparted by each of these amazing barrels, and strive to make each release in this series a unique one!

The second release in our Barrel Aged Series is a marriage of three liquids: Inspiration, Barrel Aged Legion and whiskey. Two thirds of the batch is our Belgian Dark ale, Inspiration, aged in whiskey and bourbon barrels previously containing Legion, our Russian Imperial Stout. The other third was aged in freshly dumped Colorado craft whiskey barrels. The result is pronounced depth of the already fruity and complex Belgian ale, with more dark ripe fruit and nuances of cocoa and vanilla from the B.A. Legion soaked wood.
