TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

ANTAWARA CHARDONNAY

The ANTAWARA represented to the Incas, the cosmic forces of the Mountains and the colour of early dawn, just before the sun rises. This copper-coloured light conferred to the ancient people, peace of mind and harmony with the environment, at the beginning of a day of arduous labour in the imposing altitudes of the Andes.

The grapes from this wine were handpicked and processed in environmentally friendly facilities using advanced techniques, to produce this smooth and tropical Chardonnay.

GOVERNMENT WARNING: (1) According to the Surgeon General, women should not drink alcoholic beverages during pregnancy because of the risk of birth defects. (2) Consumption of alcoholic beverages impairs your ability to drive a car or operate machinery, and may cause health problems.
