AIMÉ BOUCHER 2016
DEPUIS 1923

PINOT NOIR VIN DE FRANCE

Famous winemaker Aimé Boucher established his winery in the Loire Valley in 1923, near King Francis the First's magnificent CHAMBORD castle. To symbolize the origin and purity of his wines, he used the King's emblem: a Royal Salamander. A tribute to his antique craftsmanship and passion, today's AIMÉ BOUCHER wines feature that same salamander as a symbol of their origin and offer the best expression of the Loire terroir. Our Pinot Noir will beautifully highlight a roasted fish for red wine lovers. It is also an ideal companion to white meats such as veal or pork cutlets. Serve slightly chilled (54-58 F°)
