RESERVA MADEIRA

Esta reserva de vinho da MADEIRA beneficiou de um envelhecimento em pipas antigas de carvalho, à temperatura recomendada nas instalações desta firma centenária. A garrafa deverá ser mantida na posição vertical, ao abrigo da luz solar e o vinho servido à temperatura ambiente. No caso de permanecer muitos anos na garrafa, poderá vir a apresentar algum depósito natural, que é um sinal de vida e faz parte das qualidades intrínsecas deste grande MADEIRA. Aconselhamos o devido cuidado no servir para não turvar e se for necessário decantar.

MADEIRA RESERVE

This fine & old MADEIRA wine has been matured in old oak casks at a favourable temperature in the warehouses of this century old firm. During storage the bottle should be kept upright, away from sunlight, and protected from extremes of heat and cold. We recommend serving at room temperature. If this wine remains many years in the bottle, it may present a natural sediment, that is a sign of life and it belongs to the intrinsic qualities of this great MADEIRA. We advise that this wine should be poured very carefully leaving any deposit in the bottle, or it may be decanted.
