KIBO

KIBO (key-bō) means HOPE in Japanese. The earthquake and tsunami of March 2011 completely destroyed the Suisen Shuzo Saké Brewery and tragically took the lives of seven of their employees. With much passion and perseverance the saké brewery was rebuilt and the company resumed saké production the following year. • The spirit of the Suisen brewery lives on in its KIBO Junmai saké. Known as "Iwate no Jizake"—a local craft saké from the Iwate Prefecture—and handmade from local Kitakami rice and pure mountain water, KIBO is deliciously soft and mellow with a slightly dry finish.
