TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

Many years ago when I told my friends and colleagues I would bottle pure Alvarinho from the Lisboa wine region the general consensus was that I was aluado, meaning moonstruck, or crazy... but the wine was delicious (and they all enjoyed a glass or two!). Alvarinho it's a premium, native vine that my family was the first to plant in the Lisboa wine region. It is rich, elegant and perfumed, well-structured with complex stone fruit and orchard fruit characters. The finish is long and refreshing with lingering citrus notes. This full-bodied wine is a great accompaniment for roast chicken and grilled fish, and partners perfectly with most Thai dishes and seafood.
