In the pastoral countryside of Bergerac east of Bordeaux the Mériillier siblings tend 136 acres of vines. Their mother is Marie and their surrounding hillsides are the Coteaux de Plaisance, hence the name of the domain which has nourished this close-knit family since 1850. They farm diligently without modern agrochemicals to make this vibrant and fulsomely dry white from Semillon 60%, Sauvignon Blanc 35%, and Muscadelle 5%.
