Ayllu
MALBEC

Ayllu means tribe in the native Indian language of Mendoza. It was born of the collective spirit in which they worked the land of this magical, high altitude desert oasis at the foot of the Andes. Ayllu represents a common sense of purpose and place, as they nurtured the fruits of their land. At Ayllu, we share this same commitment to purpose and place - producing varietal wines that speak to their terroir. Ayllu Malbec is sourced from high altitude mountain vineyards where bright sunny days impart rich black fruit flavors with a full yet supple mouthfeel, while cold Andean nights lend delicate floral aromas and a long, balanced finish.
