TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

2007 Pinot Noir

Rock Point is located on the northern bank of the Rogue River just north of the town of Gold Hill in Southern Oregon. The distinguished Rock Point formation became the name of a small community founded by J.B. White in the early 1850s. Rock Point has a colorful history consisting of the Rogue Indian wars, gold mining, floods, the railroad, and orchards. Today, the only remaining reminder of the community's history is the still standing Stage Coach Stop, the location of the Rock Point Hotel, a major stop along the California Oregon Stage line.
