TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

2006 Old Bull

The Turnbull name goes back to the early 1300's when a court member of Robert the Bruce saved the king's life by turning away a ferocious bull which had threatened to gore the king. The grateful king dubbed his subject "Turnbull" and awarded him a crest featuring a bull's head twisted back, with the motto: Audaci Favet Fortuna, or "Fortune Favors the Bold."
