LOT	SAINT-ÉMILION GRAND CRU BORDEAUX, FRANCE
76	320 CASES

Story: The town of Saint-Émilion was named after a monk who arrived in the 8th century to live a secluded life of piety, or maybe he just loved wine. Originally planted by the Romans, the ancient vineyards surrounding the town are some of the most magnificent to behold. Here, Merlot and Cabernet Franc are hand-harvested from gravelly soil along the Dordogne river and then aged for over a year in French oak barrels. This is a legendary wine that will wow even the snootiest of your wine-loving friends.

Taste: Deep inky purple in color with pensive aromas of blackberries, plum and earth resting beneath hints of vanilla and toasted brioche. The wine's flavors are dense and cryptic. Patiently sip this wine and it will slowly reveal its splendor.

90+ CELLARS 90+ Cellars is wine with a pedigree of high ratings from the world's most respected wineries that you can buy for a fraction of the original price.
