TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

Amici is, at its core, a story about friends. In 1991, a group of friends with a passion for good wine crushed a few tons of grapes in the Napa Valley for our personal cellars. The resulting wines received such outstanding accolades that we started producing wine the very next year to share with the public. We chose to name the wine, appropriately, Amici ("friends" in Italian).

Today at Amici we continue our tradition of making small production, artfully crafted wines to share with friends. Because we insist on keeping our production small, we can carefully control the process of creating each wine, crafting what we like to consider a small work of art in each bottle.

This 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon is a blend of our best grapes from Rutherford in Napa Valley. This wine displays ample aromas of currants and wild berries along with cedar and espresso, while the flavors showcase the essence of black fruits, ruffe, and mocha. The wine pairs exceptionally well with grilled and roasted prime steaks, lamb chops, and semi-soft cheeses.
