ANTAWARA SAUVIGNON BLANC

To the Incas, ANTAWARA represented the cosmic forces of the mountains and the color of early dawn, just before the sun rose. This copper-colored light awarded peace of mind and harmony with the environment at the beginning of an arduous day in the imposing altitudes of the Andes.

The grapes for this wine were handpicked and processed in environmentally friendly facilities using advanced techniques, to produce this fresh and crisp Sauvignon Blanc.

GOVERNMENT WARNING: (1) According to the Surgeon General, women should not drink alcoholic beverages during pregnancy because of the risk of birth defects. (2) Consumption of alcoholic beverages impairs your ability to drive a car or operate machinery, and may cause health problems.
