100% DESTILADO DE AGAVE

Within the Miahuatlan region of Oaxaca exists a town named San Isidro Guishe where Maestro Palenquero Atenogenes Garcia's palenque "El Labrador" sits at approximately 5,600 feet above sea level. At his palenque, Atenogenes and his son José distilled this 115-liter batch made from just over two tons of locally harvested Bicuixe (A. Karwinskii). The wild-harvested Bicuixe were roasted in an underground oven along with other varieties of agave, over guamuchil and mesquite firewood for six days. After the roast, the agaves were crushed by a large two-ton tahona that was pulled by an old tractor. Once the Bicuixe was crushed, the fibers were transferred to pine tanks and mixed with calcium-rich water drawn from their well. It was left to ferment for eight days and the mash is then double-distilled in a copper alembic still. 115 Liters produced. Adjusted with heads, hearts and xixé by José. Distilled in September 2019, bottled January 2021.

Cinco Sentidos ("Five Senses") originated as the house agave spirit in Oaxaca's acclaimed restaurant, "El Destilado." Our goal is to bring you uncertified nano-batch agave spirits that highlight varied production processes, agave diversity, and most importantly, the tradition and talents of the "familias magueyeras" who handcraft their spirit with rigor and esteem. Drink With Respect.
