Our 5 Point wines honor the five-pointed star, created by the Texas Rangers, which became the adored symbol of The Lone Star State and featured on our state flag, established in 1839. Our flag stands for bravery, purity and loyalty. In 1948 it was suggested that the five points stand for the characteristics of a good citizen: fortitude, loyalty, righteousness, prudence and broadmindedness.

This Pinot Noir is medium bodied, burgundy in color, dry and complex. It features aromas and flavors of bright cherry, berries and spice complemented by slight smoky and earthy tones. It has a pleasant smooth finish. It is a great aperitif and pairs well with chicken, pork, salmon and medium weighted fish and pasta dishes.
