VERMENTINO

Southern Italy and West Texas may not have a lot in common but when it comes to Vermentino, this grape is at home in either locale. Lightly aromatic and daringly acidic, this is a white wine that is defined by drinkability. Vermentino has a wonderful lemony, citrus character that lingers on the tongue. This variety is well suited to the Texas climate. We invite you to try what the rest of the world is already talking about: Vermentino. The quickest way to Southern Italy is through a screwcap... no passport required.

McPherson Cellars was created to honor my father, Dr. Clinton "Doc" McPherson, a founder and pioneer of the modern Texas Wine Industry
