38 Barrels Produced

2012 Buchignani Ranch, bottled 12/2013

After a second winter of little rain, warm, even summer temperatures provided excellent conditions for these interplanted 80-year-old vines to ripen. We harvested Top Block on September 15, and returned a week later for House Block. After fermentation, the two were combined and transferred to american oak barrels. Twenty percent new oak complements the ripe fruit. This elegant zinfandel is generous in spicy fruit, chalky tannins, and refreshing acidity. Enjoyable now, it will be at its best over the next five or six years. JO (9/13)

Ingredients: Hand harvested grapes, indigenous yeasts, naturally occurring malolactic bacteria, tartaric acid, oak from barrels, minimum effective SO₂. PD (9/13)
