CABERNET SAUVIGNON
YOUNTVILLE, NAPA VALLEY, CA
2,000 CASES

Story: In 1836 an adventurous fellow named George Calvert Yount acquired a tract of land on which he planted the first vineyard in Napa Valley. Now known as Yountville, the vineyards here produce Cabernet Sauvignon with enduring flavor and a hearty texture. The rest, as they say, is history.

Taste: This dense, garnet-red wine gives way to rich aromas of black cherry and sweet spice. Each sip rewards you with a mouthful of velvety dark fruit and those signature Yountville tannins, topped off with a hint of cracked black pepper and a pleasantly lingering finish. Treat yourself to a few bottles now, and then set some aside for a few years...it will be worth the wait.
