TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

SONOMA-LOEB

Ambassador John L. Loeb Jr. has been growing grapes in Sonoma County since 1975. The grapes from these vineyards have been purchased by many of California's leading wineries. Since 1990, John Loeb has devoted a small portion of his best grapes to the production of the Loeb Family Selection Wines. Combining traditional Burgundian winemaking techniques with the most exacting methods of modern viticulture, the Loeb family produces limited quantities of rich and complex Chardonnay and Pinot Noir.

John L. Loeb Jr. was the United States Ambassador to the Kingdom of Denmark from 1981 to 1983. He then served as a United States delegate to the United Nations.
