RED BLEND RESERVE

COLUMBIA VALLEY

This Castle Rock Reserve Red is fashioned after the great red wines of Bordeaux, France. Like its predecessors, this wine is made primarily of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot. The addition of Syrah adds fullness of body and spicy purple fruit. All three varieties come from the Pacific Northwest's Columbia Valley, where the cooling influence of the ocean together with this northern latitude's extra hours of warm sunshine during the growing season, combine to produce an elegant, full-bodied red to enjoy with grilled or roasted meat and poultry.
