JACKSON ESTATE
GREY GHOST SAUVIGNON BLANC 2008
MARLBOROUGH NEW ZEALAND

The Jackson Estate Grey Ghost Sauvignon Blanc is the very best of Marlborough New Zealand, the essence of Sauvignon Blanc. Jackson Estate is a special place, a testament to the vision of the Jackson family who have farmed on the Wairau River plain at Jackson Road for more than 160 years. Since planting our pioneering vineyards three decades ago, time, tide, and fortune have smiled on Jackson Estate where the unbridled affinity between Marlborough and Sauvignon Blanc has been spectacularly realized.

The Grey Ghost is the plant gum tree planted in 1861 by our great grandfather, and today graces all Jackson Estate wine labels. This wine was handcrafted from carefully selected vineyard, from the exceptional 2008 vintage. Hand-picked and whole bunch pressed, the wine was partially fermented in old French oak barrels and aged for several months on yeast lees before bottling. We trust that you will enjoy this wine as much as we did making it.
