AMICI  CELLARS
SONOMA COAST

Chardonnay
Sonoma County

A wine created by friends, for friends

Amici is, at its core, a story about friends. In 1991, a group of friends with a passion for good wine crushed a few tons of grapes in the Napa Valley for our personal cellars. The resulting wines received such outstanding accolades that we started producing wine the very next year to share with the public. We chose to name the wine, appropriately, Amici ("friends" in Italian).

Today at Amici we continue our tradition of making small production, artfully crafted wines to share with friends. Because we insist on keeping our production small, we can carefully control the process of creating each wine, crafting what we like to consider a small work of art in each bottle.

A gracefully balanced wine that combines the richness and intensity of perfectly ripened old vine fruit with the structure and acidity of great Sonoma Coast wine growing. A nose rich in honeycrisp apple, white peach, clover and baking spices suggest an elegant Burgundian palate in this wine, with additional layers of ginger and exotic white flowers. This wine will improve for decades to come.
