CABERNET SAUVIGNON

LOT 72

Paso Robles, California 2010

+ Story: This stalwart Cabernet Sauvignon comes from grapes picked from two vineyards in the heart of Paso Robles wine country, just east of where California's Salinas River flows towards the Pacific. The grapes are carefully picked one parcel at a time and only when they are perfectly ripe and ready. The wine is then aged for more than a year in French and American oak before the final blend is assembled.

+ Taste: Aromas of ripe black currant, blackberry and bittersweet chocolate emerge followed by traces of black olive, cedar and mint. The wine is soft, fruity and rounded with a gentle texture that melts into a tasty and tranquil finish. Serve it up with a grilled porterhouse and a medley of garden vegetables.

90+ CELLARS 90+Cellars is wine with a pedigree of high ratings from the world's most respected wineries that you can buy for a fraction of the original price.
