AIMÉ BOUCHER 2016
DEPUIS 1923

SAUVIGNON VIN DE FRANCE

Famous winemaker Aimé Boucher established his winery in the Loire Valley in 1923, near King Francis the First's magnificent CHAMBORD castle. To symbolize the origin and purity of his wines, he used the King's emblem: a Royal Salamander. A tribute to his antique craftsmanship and passion, today's AIME BOUCHER wines feature that same salamander as a symbol of their origin and offer the best expression of the Loire terroir. The bright acidity and the clean finish make this dry wine an ideal option for pairing with shellfish but it will also beautifully complement grilled chicken, salad or fresh goat cheese.
