BORREO

In 1888,
Italian immigrant and Napa grocer Felix Borreo built a stone and redwood winery on his vineyard property near Napa Soda Springs. Borreo planted grape vines in addition to fruit and olive orchards.

In 1992, the Miller family purchased the site, and the winery remained one of Napa's last 'ghost' wineries – until it was destroyed in the 2017 wildfires. For more than a century, the property has thrived with grapes, olives, peaches, blackberries, persimmons, walnuts, citrus and pomegranates. Now Borreo Ranch is a collection of select wines from the historic Zinfandel, Sangiovese, and Kerner vines, in addition to olive oil from the original planting of the Borreo Ranch. These bottlings are the Miller family tribute to Felix Borreo and this fruitful property.
