CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Mendoza, Argentina, 2017

LOT 53

+ Story: This glorious Cabernet Sauvignon comes from estate vineyards planted over 4,000 feet above sea level in the foothills of the Andes mountains. To achieve maximum ripeness, the fruit was harvested from low-vigor vines, and the finished wine was carefully aged in a blend of French and American oak for six months. This is one stunning Cabernet.

+ Taste: An aromatic melody of black currant, cherry and cassia rises above a harmonious backdrop of tobacco, mocha and toasty oak. On the palate, juicy, dark berry fruit cascades across your tongue followed by a trickle of sweet spice and savory plums. Serve with grilled rib eye, portabella mushrooms and well aged cheeses.
