OLD STYLE

ESTABLISHED IN 1776 at the dawn of the American Revolution, the Pepper family brand of whiskey is the oldest & most legendary whiskey brand in American history. Colonel James E. Pepper (1850-1906), the 3rd generation of that distilling legacy, was a larger-than-life bourbon aristocrat. He raced thoroughbreds, traveled in a private rail car & made famous the "Old-Fashioned" cocktail. He nicknamed his whiskey "Old 1776" & proudly proclaimed his continued use of his grandfather's original Revolutionary-era recipes. ★ Before re-launching this iconic brand, we did extensive historical research & spent years collecting and sampling full distilleries that match the "Old Style". ★ The 15-Year-Old bourbon barrels selected for this bottling were rare gems from a special distillery & closely match the profile of some superb, old J.E.P. bourbon we sampled from 1914. Rich & complex, with deep notes of caramel, honey, oak & spice, this fine whiskey drinks best with good friends, celebrations & quiet moments of deep contemplation.

bottles of original, perfectly preserved, pre-Prohibition Pepper whiskey. We even acquired a letter dated 1887 from J.E.P. himself, detailing his recipes & the exact grain bills. Referencing these materials, we have begun making some new J.E.P. whiskey & hand-picking existing barrels from select
