MAIPO VALLEY
75% CABERNET SAUVIGNON
25% CARMÉNÈRE

Albis represents the dawn, the blend of two passionate fine wine producers. Marchesi Antinori of Italy and Haras de Pirque from Chile. The commitment reflects the union between two hemispheres, two cultures, to express their common spirit through this fascinating and intriguing assemblage of Cabernet Sauvignon and Carménère. Grown in the lower slopes of a spur of the Andes Mountains in the prestigious Maipo Valley and aged in French oak barrels for eighteen months.
