TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

1842 SHIRAZ

The 1842 Shiraz celebrates the year when settlers first arrived in the Barossa and, co-incidentally, the year Sydney was officially incorporated as a city. Made from the fruit of some of the Barossa's finest vineyards, it possesses all the body and structure you'd expect from Shiraz grown in this world-famous region. Deep dark fruit aromas soar from the glass while the palate is wreathed in rich black fruit flavours, complexed by notes of mint, tobacco, mocha chocolate, ripe blackcurrants and subtle oak spiciness, from maturation in new and seasoned oak barrels. Eminently drinkable and lusciously smooth, it demands to be served in big-bowled glasses with roast lamb, venison, or a good old-fashioned steak.
