Inspired to produce an even fruitier, sweeter Balvenie, Apprentice Malt Master Kelsey McKechnie had the bright idea to impart Virgin Oak barrels from Kentucky. After deep toasting them at The Balvenie Covenanter they were filled with Balvenie aged in ex-bourbon barrels. The result is a deliciously complex whisky with notes of candied fruit, coconut and delicate vanilla.

The Balvenie Distillery is built on the stories that are told from each generation of craftsmen to the next. They're our fit & blood. It is how we pass on what we know, how we process experience, and how we create new ideas. The Balvenie Stories range documents these tales of true character.

From the distillery comes:

[1] THE SWEET TOAST OF AMERICAN OAK

A deliciously sweet, rich and fruity variation of The Balvenie, created by finishing the whisky in twice-toasted, Virgin American Oak barrels.
