NORTHEAST TEXAS IPA

Say if you're east of California, South of Ohio / West of Vermont, where the hazy IPAs grow / We gotta a little place called Texas / Where the IPAs grow on trees / Right there for the pickin' good buddy / Just as easy as one could please ...

We get asked if this IPA is west coast, New England, or what have you. Regardless what you call it, it's a light bodied, citrus IPA with modest bitterness and big juicy flavor and aroma. It's refreshing, can be enjoyed all day long, and brewed right here in Northeast Texas.

No matter what you call it, it's easy to love ...
