TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

Texans Helping Businesses & Protecting Communities

As dawn reveals another day, specialised pickers gather in the seemingly endless fields of persian pink flowers to begin harvest of the world's most precious spice - saffron. One by one, each of the three stigmas is pulled out of the delicate flower and dried by hand – a lengthy process that makes the spice cost almost as much gold.

Much like this hand-harvested exotic spice, our grape selection is equally as rigorous. With low yielding bush vines grown in unique vineyards, our team is careful to ensure only unblemished bunches undergo light pressing, releasing sensual floral and honey-like aromas on this serious rosé. Serve chilled

- a masterful match for almost any dish.
