Location, location, location. If you're looking for a superb Cabernet Sauvignon, come to the Napa Valley. Its unique climate with cooling morning fog and hot sunny days, ensures a long and even ripening for its signature red grape variety. Packed full of ripe cassis and currant flavors, underpinned by subtle oak, this wine is full bodied and delicious. It will add a touch of excellence to your dinner table now and for a decade to come. All you need do is decant, serve in large-bowled glasses and enjoy its sense of place.
