So, you have tried Ballast Point's award winning ales and lagers and now you have in your hand our latest creation. Furthering our liquid alchemy, we have entered the spirit world with a line of truly artisanal spirits. Inspired by our worldly travels, we have set out to make complex and delightful spirits on our own custom built hybrid pot/column still.

Our Aged Rum is born from brand new American Oak barrels. These are the same barrels used to age whiskey, however, our production begins with evaporated cane sugar instead of grain. A deep "alligator char" adds depth of color and imparts flavors of vanilla and smoke naturally with age. Explore how good real barrel aged rum can be.

There is more to life than great beer,
