NEBBIOLO D'ALBA
DENOMINAZIONE
DI ORIGINE CONTROLLATA
DOC, ITALY | 400 CASES

Story: The Nebbiolo grape likely receives its name from (nebbia), or fog, which occurs frequently on the hills surrounding the town of Alba during the harvest month of October. This one is made from estate fruit picked and sorted by hand, fermented and then aged in Slavonian oak for one year before bottling. It's a captivating red produced by a family winery with a rich legacy of crafting praiseworthy wines.

Taste: Exquisitely perfumed aromas of succulent cherry fruit, fresh flowers and soft spice. Light crimson in color with an astonishingly intense circus of flavor that starts with a dramatic boom of texture and coalesces into a harmonious finale of savoriness. Pour a glass with black truffle and mushroom risotto or filet mignon with a red wine reduction. It's okay if you make a yummy sound now.
