CABERNET SAUVIGNON MONTEREY COUNTY || 2017

The jagged cliffs that separate our rocky hillside vineyards from the Pacific Ocean are home to wild boar, also known as Verraco in colloquial Spanish. These rugged creatures symbolize the audacity and tenacity that drove us to pioneer Central Coast vineyard planting back in the 70's. Today, we continue our no-holds barred approach to grape growing and winemaking, with a richly textured, dark cassis-fruited Cabernet Sauvignon that captures the unbridled spirit of our unique region.
