The beauty of a Cotton Bloom...

Did you know before the fiber, comes a flower that adorns the plant? Our family is eight generations of cotton farmers in West Texas - it's "What brought us to the dance" so to speak. However, the "Price of Cotton" makes you want to drink, so fortunately we planted vineyards as well. Our exquisite "Grancy", the Matriarch of our family, is the original "beauty" that adorns and survives all that is "Farming." She captured the essence of the "Bloom" here in her artistic rendition and now we want to share it with you.
