PINOT NOIR BLOCK 4D
SANFORD & BENEDICT VINEYARD STA. RITA HILLS

In 1971, the Sanford & Benedict Vineyard became the first vineyard in what would become a world class, cool climate AVA. Block 4D is a north facing slope, just below the iconic old barn with rocky Botella clay loam soil. 4D is our first planting of Dijon clone 943, and the intriguing combination of dark fruits, wet stone, and iron make for a complex single block wine. True to the Terlato Family's commitment to quality, individual barrels from this prized block were selected for this very limited bottling.
