TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

STOLLER FAMILY ESTATE

We've been farming the Dundee Hills long before there was an Oregon wine industry. Since 1943, to be exact. We grew wheat, barley and turkeys. Years later, we planted vines and our grapes became the most sought after in the county. We brought in a vineyard manager and winemaker who both share our beliefs on respecting the land. They work side by side with nature, letting the seasons, the soil and, ultimately, the grapes determine how our wine will be. Theirs is a beautiful partnership; one which produces some remarkable wines.

We combine old-world, hands-on farming with a modern approach to growing grapes which puts an emphasis on complexity. The result is an extraordinary Oregon Pinot Noir.
