TEXAS ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE COMMISSION

billhook
Napa Valley

billhook is an Old English word for a pruning knife, a tool that can be handed down for generations in Napa Valley. Pride is found in keeping it free of rust with a fine edge whetted against a bit of vineyard stone. Also passed along is the skill and passion to coax the finest fruit from a rough, twisted vine and the joy of a rich, elegant and balanced wine. Such a wine can only be grown in a special place by people with commitment to create something fine and exceptional.

billhook Cabernet Sauvignon offers flavors of dark plum, blackberry and bright cassis that will enhance any table and is grown in Napa Valley from responsibly and respectfully farmed vineyards.
