SANTA ALICIA
WINE OF CHILE

RESERVA

CABERNET SAUVIGNON

The "condor" is known to have features that make it unique. Besides being the largest flying bird in the world and one of the longest-living, it partners up with a single mate for life and its plumage varies in color depending on its emotional state. Due to its declining numbers, any sighting of a condor in majestic flight among the Andean peaks is a truly amazing experience. The condor is Chile's national bird. It has its place in the national coat of arms and has served as inspiration for our Reserve line.

Deliciously complex, rich and polished, exhibiting rich plum, blackberry and spice,offering also flavors of chocolate and vanilla. Very complete and elegantly styled, finish with ripe, integrated tannins.
