We love a classic mule, but started wondering if we could put a modern twist on an old faithful. In our New School Gin Mule, we took out the ginger beer and substituted it with a kick of natural ginger, tonic flavor and spice. To fill the small void left by removing the carbonation, we swapped out the vodka for a juniper forward London Dry gin. It's a more crisp, clean ginger cocktail without the syrups and bubble trouble. You'll find this drink alongside us all year round - working its way from our beach towel to holiday gatherings.

Sediment may occur due to natural ingredients - it's all good!

GOVERNMENT WARNING: (1) According to the Surgeon General, women should not drink alcoholic beverages during pregnancy because of the risk of birth defects. (2) Consumption of alcoholic beverages impairs your ability to drive a car or operate machinery, and may cause health problems.
